

Wow, the Hill Country has never looked so good! The abundance of rain this year has made the Medina River, the jewel of Bandera, awesome. Lots of new folks visiting City Park for a float down the river. Never too late for a swim! Bandera is a small town, but we never lack for things to do! Check out the Events Calendar at www.BanderaCowboyCapital.com.

Every Saturday, for great family entertainment, visit the Cowboys on Main program hosted by the BBA featuring chuck wagons, horses, Longhorns, strolling singers and occasional snake oil salesmen. Catch them between 1-4pm at the Visitor's Center. Then at noon and 2pm hurry over to catch the Bandera Cattle Company gun show reenactments.

Starting on Friday September the 16th thru Sunday the 18th Biker Rallies of Texas presents Rumble on the River. The three-day event held at Bandera's Mansfield Park consists of tent camping, a poker run, vendors, food, field events. The Rumble features music all day Friday and Saturday, a bike show, tattoo contest and more!

Next big Festival in the fall is the annual Cajun Festival and Gumbo Cook-off on September 24th, held at the Lakehills Civic Center, this fun event celebrates everything Cajun! All homemade Cajun food, dancing, arts and crafts, games, souvenirs. Cajunfestival-medinalake.com/ for more info.

On the way home stop in Medina and bring the kids for the 23rd Annual Great Hill Country Pumpkin Patch Time: Open every Saturday, Sunday and Monday in October. 10:00am to 4:00pm.
