

EASTER TEJANO FEST

TEXAS HILL COUNTRY RIVER REGION
OFFERS PERFECT MIX OF RELAXATION
AND FUN WITH FIRST ANNUAL
EASTER TEJANO FEST

Texas Hill Country River Region, just an hour and a half scenic drive from San Antonio, is a place of simple pleasures – home to chalk cliffs, three crystal-clear rivers, a canopy of Cypress trees and some of the best festivals in Hill Country.

Visitors can unlock the magic of uninterrupted time with loved ones in this secluded oasis that truly lets you get away from it all while experiencing some of the best entertainment that Texas has to offer. It's a perfect place to refresh, recharge and celebrate the coming of spring. In fact, this spring, Concan, Texas is hosting its first annual Easter Tejano Fest, which kicks off with a fish fry on the Frio River, followed by a concert headlined by AJ Castillo and Grupo Massore that'll be fun for the entire family.

While in town, enjoy the many charms of the Texas Hill Country River Region – hike at Garner State Park, dine on authentic Texas

BBQ, float down the Frio River in a inner-tube, kayak or take a dip in the Nueces and Sabinal Rivers, gaze up as 10 million bats fly overhead at the famous Frio Bat Tour or spot the Milky Way while star-gazing with the ones you love. Then, settle in to one of the region's luxurious cabins-style resorts or rental vacation properties.
