

1ST ANNUAL

KERRVILLE RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL

Game of Thrones and Black Sails have sparked a great deal of interest in medieval times. On the TV show you see a lot of beheadings but at the Renaissance Festival you only see folk that be heading for a cold flagon of ale. The 1st Festival was blessed with almost perfect weather and a wide variety of entertainment was on hand falconers, troubadours and story tellers - something for the whole family.
